

The Government of The Bahamas to host Tourism Conference

On behalf of the Government of Bahamas, the Directorate of Sustainable Tourism of the Association of Caribbean States (ACS) is pleased to make mention of the upcoming Conference jointly organized by the Ministry of Tourism of Bahamas and the United Nations World Tourism Organization on “Tourism as a Key Sector for Development in Island States”, which is scheduled to take place in Nassau, Bahamas 19-20 February, 2014. Countries are encouraged to attend this conference which seeks to address a range of relevant issues in the Caribbean and Latin America. Further details and Registration information are available via the following link: www.sids-tourism.org/conference/