

The VIII Americas Competitiveness Forum

From October 8th-10th, 2014, the Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago will host the preeminent competitiveness and innovation forum in the Western Hemisphere, the VIII Americas Competitiveness Forum (ACF.) The ACF brings together participants from thirty-four countries across the Hemisphere and will also feature selected distinguished international speakers. One thousand participants are expected to attend the Forum including government, business and civil society leaders.

This Forum provides opportunity to bring the wider Caribbean together behind a progressive agenda embracing a regional leadership role in advancing the competitiveness of the Hemisphere.

Further information on the Forum can be found by clicking the following link:
www.competitivenessforum.org