

Association of Caribbean States mourns the passing of Sheldon Mc Donald

The Secretariat would like to join in mourning the untimely loss of Mr. Sheldon Mc Donald who during his time at the ACS, and beyond, served the Caribbean Region devotedly. He left an indelible legacy on this organization, committed to raising the level of corporation among our countries.

Condolences are hereby extended to his sons and relatives at this time of grief, and the people and Government of Jamaica for the loss of a valuable citizen of the Region.
